Present Drama.

It does not lie in the painter's fancy to imagine a prettier picture than that of the young girl, with lips luscious with the promise of love, half parted in the smiles of happy dreamland. The mind of happy maidenhood is a clear and polished mirror, which, when the wits go wandering into the ghostland of dreams, reflects the impressions of waking hours. If those impressions are pleasant and painless, the picture she will smile in her sleep. If the impressions are those of a suffering woman, tortured with the special ailments to which the feminine organism is liable, the picture is spoiled by the lines of suffering and despondency. Maladies of this nature unfit a woman for joyous maidenhood, and for capable motherhood. They incapacitate her to bear the burdens of life in any sphere of action. Household, marital, and social duties alike are a burden to the woman who is constantly suffering from headaches, backaches, dragging sensations and weakening drains. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription positively cures the troubles of this nature. It imparts health, strength, vigor to the distinctly womanly organs. It fits for carefree, healthy maidenhood, happy wifehood and capable motherhood.

I have a little step-daughter who had St. Vitus's Dance, which your medicine cured. Write Mrs. P. B. Boe of Ford, Dinwiddie Co., Va. I spent about twenty dollars for doctor's bills and medicine, and it did not do the child one cent's worth of good. I commenced giving Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery, and used three bottles of each, which cost only six dollars. Now the child is running around every where and is just as healthy as ever.

What Ethel Saw.

One day as Ethel was sitting at the front window waiting for it to stop raining, so she could go out riding with her mother, she saw a little carriage, drawn by six ponies and driven by a little fairy. He told Ethel to get in, which she did. In a few moments she saw a little house, from which strains of music and the merry peals of laughter were coming. They stopped in front of the door, and the fairy jumped out and told Ethel to follow, but she said: "I cannot get through that door. I am too large." The fairy handed her a bottle, from which he told her to drink. She took a drink and felt herself growing smaller and smaller, and at last she was small enough to go through the door.

When she got in the room, she saw a merry sight, the fairies dancing, talking and having a very fine time. The fairy that had driven her there introduced her to the Queen Fairy and King Fairy.

The queen introduced her to many other friends, and she had a very fine time.

The band was playing the last piece. Ethel woke up and found it had stopped raining, and her mother had gone out riding and left her.—San Francisco Call.

Alfonso's Santa Claus.

Santa Claus comes to little Alfonso regularly in the palace at Madrid as he comes to the commonest child here. The entire court of Madrid makes a gift to the little king, first collectively, then individually. One year the court gave him a crown jewel to replace one that had been removed during the previous reign and never replaced. After the "removal" of the gem the Spanish king never dared to wear his crown in public and it lay in the vaults for ten years.

For many years it had a lopsided appearance, but the father of Alfonso had a piece of glass, a diamond paste jewel, set in the gap, and so the crown has remained until the court replaced the gem a few years ago.

Alfonso's favorite personal gifts are animals and mechanical toys. He owns a navy that must be an aggravation to the Spanish cabinet.

Personally the little king has few desires, for beyond dressing well in regulation dress he is a modest youngster, who is contented with the grounds of the palace and the society of such children as are selected for him from the families of the nobles.

Tears are the sign of a broken nose, often more than they are the sign of a broken heart.—Detroit Journal.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

STATE LAND OFFICE, CARSON CITY, NEVADA.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE State of Nevada, under the Act of Congress approved June 16, 1890 (21 Stat. 297), has filed in the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, List No. 220 of lands selected under said Act, and has applied for a patent for said lands, a part of said list is open to the public for inspection, and a copy thereof, by descriptive subdivisions, has been posted in a convenient place in said United States Land Office for the inspection of all persons interested and the public generally.

Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice, protests and contests against the claim of said State of Nevada, by way of tract or subdivision described in the list on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received and noted by the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C.

The following are the subdivisions described, to-wit: 57 1/2 of NW 1/4 and NW 1/4 of SE 1/4 of Sec. 18, T. 24 N., R. 16 E., M. D. B. & M. 4th series; State Land Register of the State of Nevada, Dated of first insertion September 2, 1899 10w.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE annual meeting of the stockholders of Southside Irrigation Canal Company will be held at the office of the Secretary, Virginia Street below Second, on Saturday, February 4th, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the election of trustees and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. A full attendance is desired.

their envy, and might have a party. To his infinite chagrin, the chimney smoked abominably and the bunglow was filled with stifling. After they had thoroughly gazed the disconsolate Willis the disgusted guests went home to cough it off.

Next day Polk made a careful examination of chimney and hearth, satisfied himself that everything was now as it should be, and then gave another party. That abominable chimney again spoiled it all. It smoked and smoked. Willis was in despair, but the next day it was all right again. At intervals after that Polk entertained friends, and he found that the fireplace never drew when he had company, although at other times it worked perfectly. So he set a little trap, which finally solved the puzzle. It was a little cracker box, placed over the top of the chimney, which caused all the trouble.

Some of his friends had thus thoroughly covered up the chimney every time the young architect had planned an entertainment.—San Francisco News Letter.

Opium.

Like most of nature's products opium is classified in grades. The growers of India, in white turbans and gowns, sit in the blazing sun waiting for their opium to be sorted, when they go to market. The unripe poppy seed pod has been cut into five-fifths and the milky sap dried in the sun and kneaded into cakes, the best of which are covered with dried leaves and thus brought to market.

Opium of the first class must be tough, smooth and a rich brown shade, bitter to taste and strong of scent.

In 1892 54 per cent of the suicides in India were from the use of opium, and one statistician credits 90 per cent of the women suicides to the same drug. However, twelve-thirteenth of the opium of India is sent to China for smoking. During Victoria's reign the Chinese have paid into the British treasury for Indian opium $1,850,000.

The Chinese government does all in its power to check the opium habit, the punishments common in the Chinese army for this habit being extreme. For the first offense a man may have his upper lip cut; for the second he may be decapitated. For the last 60 years on an average a half-ton of opium has been sent to China from India every hour.—Atlanta Constitution.

Comparing Notes.

"My family can't help feeling a little proud of having been carried over by the Mayflower," said the young woman who was visiting in Chicago.

"Is that so?" answered the young man interestedly. "None of our folks ever went into the florist business. What brought us through was wheat."—Washington Star.

The extraordinary precocity of children of India has called forth the astonishment of a recent traveler, who says that many of them are skilled workmen at an age when children are just learning the alphabet.

of the coast communities, and generally discussed as at the present time. The existing deadlocks in the legislature of a dozen or more States, with the probability of Senatorial vacancies in many of them, has awakened the press and the people to a realization of the defect in our federal constitution which prescribes the present method of electing the members of the upper house of Congress. The press comments are from papers in almost every State in the Union, although they are mainly from the west and south, and when we say the west we mean all of the territory this side of the Middle States. The discussion, so far as we have noticed, has been invariably in favor of the change, and if any newspaper has taken the opposite side it has failed to come under our observation. In fact it is hard to conceive how any possible argument can be based upon or maintained in favor of the present system.

There are two ways in which the constitutional change may be effected. The quickest and most direct way is for both houses of Congress to submit such amendment, which must be done by a two-thirds vote in each branch. The amendment must then be ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the States in the Union. If the question should be submitted in that manner there is not the shadow of a doubt but the proposition would be indorsed by at least four-fifths of the States, and the change would be effected within two years after such favorable action by Congress. If our memory serves us correctly such amendment has twice passed the House of Representatives, but has been pigeon-holed or otherwise disposed of in the Senate without a direct vote upon the question.

The other more roundabout and complicated method is by application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the States for a call for a convention for proposing amendments, which must be ratified, as in the other case, by the legislatures of two-thirds of the States.

The first is unquestionably the speediest and most direct course for the accomplishment of the purpose. Judging from the attitude of the press everywhere, it would seem impossible that the measure should fail to pass the popular branch of Congress upon its merits and without any other pressure than the clamor of the people as expressed in the conventions of all parties and the press of the country. There would naturally be more opposition in the Senate, as many of the members hold their positions by the grace of the State legislatures who would never have been there by the consent of the people of their States. The legislature of every State favoring the change should before adjournment, adopt a joint resolution, instructing its Senators in most emphatic and unequivocal terms to vote for the amendment. There was never a more favorable time than the present for pushing the matter to a successful termination. Let the Nevada legislature take the initiative and with as little delay as possible adopt such a resolution as will at least express the will of ninety-five per cent of the voters of the State.

The Lyon County Times says it is probable that a petition will be circulated asking Mr. Nowlands to resign. A petition of about three-fourths of the voters of the State was presented at the polls last November, asking Mr. Stewart not to run for United States Senator. At the same time about the same proportion of voters asked Mr. Nowlands to serve as their Representative in Congress. Let's have two petitions severally circulated asking for the resignation of Stewart and Nowlands. If such could be presented to every voter in the State, Stewart would score the only majority he has ever scored at the hands of the people of Nevada in his lifetime. But, little he cares for popular majorities. A legislative majority is good enough for him.

The Elko Independent says the course of Gillespie was not that of an honest man. What is the Independent's opinion of those who directed Gillespie's course? That he was induced to leave by some of Stewart's lobbyists there is no more question than in regard to his absence when his name was called, or that his failure to vote insured the election of the "grand old man." Our Elko contemporary shouldn't kick at the method when it accepts with such supreme ecstasy the glorious result.

Wait till the clouds roll by. We'll elect Bryan in 1900, when the gold-bug corporation which owns Nevada's two seats in the U. S. Senate can take them and their proxy occupants and go to thunder with them. With a people's President and silver restored, Nevada will be hunkedora anyhow, despite of Black Wallaces, Colonel Chinas and Harry Plannery. So, cheer up, betrayed brethren, we may all be happy yet.

The Journal is in receipt of the biennial report of the Board of Regents of the State University for 1897-8, and the biennial report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction for 1897-8, for which it extends thanks.

Funeral of J. B. Williams.
The funeral of J. B. Williams took place Sunday afternoon at 8 o'clock under the auspices of Lodge No. 10 I. O. O. F. The funeral services were held at the family residence, the Rev. Samuel Unsworth of the Episcopal Church speaking the words of sympathy and condolence which mean so much to those who are grief-stricken by the death of a loved one. At the conclusion of the services the procession formed and moved toward the Odd Fellows Cemetery, where the earthly remains of this honored, esteemed and beloved citizen were gently laid into their last resting place. Over sixty carriages formed the funeral train that did honor to the dead, a fitting tribute to this high place he held in the hearts of the people of Reno.

Death of a Navy Veteran.
James J. Doherty, a native of New York, aged 67 years, died of pneumonia at the Arcade hotel yesterday evening. The deceased was an old time resident of Reno, where he leaves many friends. He had served in the navy during the rebellion and was a member of the G. A. R. The General O. M. Mitchell Post has telegraphed the sad news to his relatives in California and are awaiting a reply. If the relatives desire it, the remains will be sent to California for burial; if not, the funeral will take place in Reno under the auspices of the G. A. R.

A Society Event.
"Yon Yonson," which will be seen at the Opera House next Thursday night, is pretty firmly established in public favor. For five years it has been drawing large and pleased audiences with monotonous regularity. It is one of the few American comedies worthy of more than passing notice. It exploits a new field and gives to the stage a new character and one that has attracted universal attention because of its originality. From present prospects there will be a crowded house. Seats now on sale.

For Over Fifty Years.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children when teething. It disturbs at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it mothers there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

A petition is being circulated in nearly every mining district in the State asking the Legislature to pass an eight-hour law similar to that in force in Utah.

Cost of the Winter Girl.
The winter girl is not content with one or even two kinds of fur wraps. Her wardrobe must contain furs for all occasions. She will have a collar of ermine, a jacket of broad tail, a stone marten skin, a fur lined cape, a skating gown trimmed with fox, etc.

You see it costs a great deal to be a typical winter girl. However, one can have a reasonable variety of furs without going to an exaggerated expense. Little touches of fashionable fur in the form of dainty neckwear give the much desired finish to simple toilets. To be sure, they must be built upon the very latest model. What could be prettier and more flattering, for example, than a certain collar of marten? The fur, cut in one long strip a little wider than a regular collar band, is arranged in and out in the shape of loops attached to a straight strip of satin just long enough to encircle the neck. The fastening in front is covered with a bunch of marten tails or a pretty bow of colored panne centered upon a jeweled buckle.—San Francisco Call.

Just Like Other Women.
Women will all sympathize with the young queen of Holland's action with regard to the pictorial postcards bearing her portrait. The young monarch took exception to these counterfeit representations of herself on the ground that she "no longer did her hair as represented in the picture," which was consequently "old fashioned and misleading" to those who received the cards in other countries. Queen Wilhelmina has consequently ordered this issue to be destroyed, and thereby showed herself to be a true daughter of Eve. No member of her sex, even though she be a queen, likes anything but the most prepossessing portrait of herself to be in circulation, and it was only natural that this 18 year old monarch should have used her power to prevent an unflattering picture being scattered broadcast.—Philadelphia Ledger.

the heart and all are gathered round to watch the cheerful blaze. They were the cones appreciated by those in the city to whom they were first sent as gifts that now their shipment has grown into a little industry, and the bright southern women who thought it out is enjoying quite a profit therefrom.—Exchange.

Queen Natalie's Neck.
Mr. Queen Natalie of Servia is still a very beautiful woman. Her greatest charm is her exquisitely shaped neck, which is said to resemble that of the Venus of Milo. The art she employs to protect it against the ravages of time is simple enough to be practiced by any one. It is said—but the story may not be true—that every morning she takes a brisk walk in the grounds of her palace, near Belgrade, with a heavy pitcher on her head. This not only improves the neck, but gives an erect and graceful carriage. The custom is not original, for it has been a common practice among the women of the poorer classes in Queen Natalie's country from the earliest ages.

A Methodist revival meeting was broken up last Tuesday night at Sier-raville by "howd'lums," who threw a bottle of skunk muck on the floor of the vestibule of the church.
Dr. J. E. Stubbs returned Sunday morning from California much improved in health. A telegram called him to Carson where he has gone to make reports on University affairs to the legislature.
Mr. and Mrs. Murphy of Virginia City were here yesterday to welcome their son, Lieut. Chas. Murphy, as he came through with his regiment, the Twenty-first Infantry. They got on the train and rode with him as far as Truckee.

Several Bills Introduced
CARSON CITY, Jan. 30, 1890.
The gubernatorial contest case of McMillan vs. Sadler came up in the Supreme Court on Saturday. Quite an array of legal talent is engaged on each side, the attorneys for McMillan being Cheney, Coffin, Murphy, Vanderleith and Platt, and for Governor Sadler, Wren, Woodburn, Clarke, Judge and Sadler.
A motion to dismiss the case on the ground of lack of jurisdiction by this Supreme Court was argued at length, submitted and taken under advisement. This morning the court denied the motion, deciding that it had the proper jurisdiction. A demurrer was entered by the defense, which will be decided next Saturday.
The reception given by Senator and Mrs. Stewart to the members of the Legislature and friends, at their residence on Saturday evening, was well attended, and all present enjoyed the hospitality and social entertainment of the occasion hugely. A liberal banquet collation of choice eatables was flooded tabled. The punch brewed by Mrs. Stewart herself was a miracle of inspiration, and everybody went home happy, yet regretting that such joys didn't happen oftener.
Stewart went to San Francisco last night, but left Colonel Ohlin to hold the fort for a day or two until he gets back.
SENATE.
Met at 11 o'clock; roll call, prayer by chaplain and reading of the Journal, as usual.
The Committee on Federal Relations reported having had Senate joint resolution No. 4, relative to the treaty with Spain and the control of territory acquired during the late war, under consideration and returned the same without recommendation.
As Mr. Flanagan, who introduced the resolution, was absent in Reno, on motion it was made special order for to-morrow at 2 o'clock.
By Comins—Senate joint resolution No. 5, relative to the election of United States Senators directly by the people.
Committee on Federal Relations.
Mr. Lord introduced a bill to pay F. P. Langan $200.95 for legal services in the court martial case of N. L. Morgan vs. J. J. Crosby et al., at Virginia City a year ago last fall. Committee on Ways and Means.
HOUSE.
Assembly met pursuant to adjournment.
Mr. Speaker in the chair. Prayer by chaplain; Journal read and approved.
The following bills were introduced:
A. B. No. 11, by Henley—An act to amend an act entitled "An act to provide revenue for the support of the government of the State of Nevada," and to repeal certain acts relating thereto. Referred to Ways and Means Committee.
A. B. No. 12, by Hodgkinson—With a similar title, was referred to Ways and Means Committee.
A. B. No. 13, by Kirman—Relating to appointment of executors, administrators and guardians. Judiciary.
A. B. No. 14, by McGowan—An act providing for janitor for committee rooms. Ways and Means.
A. B. No. 15, by Mr. Allen—Providing for the copying of the Assembly Journal. Ways and Means.
A. B. No. 16, by Mr. Spindel—An act to provide for the appointment of guardians and prescribing their duties.
Committee on Judiciary.
A. B. No. 17, by Mr. Dooley—An act to regulate the hours of labor in all public works, mines, smelters and institutions for the refining of ores or metals. Referred to Committee on Mines and Mining.
A. B. No. 2, relating to the appointment of Superintendent of Asylum, was temporarily laid on the table.
A. B. No. 4, repealing the purity of elections law, was considered engrossed and made the special order for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
Mr. Blakeslee of Washoe moved the appointment of a committee consisting of one representative from each county to, at some future date, visit the Hospital for Mental Diseases. The motion prevailed and the Speaker will probably appoint the committee at Tuesday's session.
Dr. Stubbs addressed the members of the Legislature in the Assembly chamber this evening on the condition and needs of the State University. He had a crowded house and his audience gave the closest attention to the doctor's remarks.
The Senatorial contest being over, the members are now showing a disposition to get down to work and the indications are that this week will be a busy one as far as the introduction of proposed laws are concerned.
Gillispie is still explaining, but he makes no better success at it than Stewart does in explaining how he came to sign the bill demonetizing silver and "didn't know anything about it."
The price of copper has advanced to 16 cents.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.
ON THE CAMPAIGN AGAIN.
Senator Stewart Denounces the Nevada State University.
Senator Stewart came down from Carson Sunday evening and took the west bound train for San Francisco.
There was no demonstration made upon his arrival nor anybody in particular to give him greeting. He went over to the Riverside hotel and sat for a while moodily in a chair, when he suddenly arose and gave vent to his feelings against Washoe county in language more characteristic than acceptable to ears polite. He was particularly savage against the State University which he declared was receiving more money from the State than it was entitled to. As the Senator is a heavy tax-payer, he doubtless felt indignant that his contributions to the State government should be squandered on an idle institution of learning which nearly every man, woman and child in the State is foolish enough to be proud of. Well, the old man is elected for six years, or life, as the case may be, and can well afford to abuse the people, from whose verdict he was obliged to appeal to Messrs. Denton, McGowan, Ledy and Gillespie to secure his election. Fortunately nothing is expected of him in the interest of Nevada and his threat to even up on the State University will surprise no one who has ever sized up the "grand old man's" capacity for hatred of everything that is creditable, useful and commendable in the State, which by the grace of the Southern Pacific, he is permitted to misrepresent in the United States Senate.
Railway Extension.
The N. O. O. Railway Company has upwards of fifty men at work on its extension line near Amdece. Two miles of track have already been completed and the work is being pushed with all possible dispatch. The 3,000 tons of steel rails already ordered will track over forty miles of road. It is reported that the temporary terminus will be at Alturas.
The extension will tap a fine stock raising and agricultural region, which now procures the greater portion of its supplies from California points on the western slope of the mountains, by which route most of its shipments are also made. The extension will secure all of that business, and will be a great accommodation to the people of Al-turas and vicinity. No doubt in time the extension will be continued as far north as Surprise Valley.

The Ravages of Grip.
That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery.
When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst cough, heal the inflamed membrane, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50c. and $1.00. Money back if not cured.
A trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.
Important to Working Men.
I have just received a complete and large stock of genteel furnishing goods, undershirts, underwear, socks, gloves, neckties, collars, cuffs, etc., direct from the factory. Also the celebrated Bull Bitches and Levi Strauss overalls in all sizes, which I am selling at prices that defy competition. I have a large assortment of fine all wool blankets, baggy robes, saddle blankets and quilts. I have always on hand a complete stock of all the leading brands of cigars, cigarettes and tobacco which I sell at wholesale and retail. A free employment office in connection with the store.
A. NELSON.

was stricken with asthma in so aggravated a form that he was obliged to leave China and seek health in some more agreeable climate. After trying doctors and climates all over the world he located in Reno, the only place where he seemed to obtain relief.
Shortly after having settled here he purchased the English mill mining property which he held for a number of years, selling it to Russell and Bradley. During the past six years he has suffered greatly from his ailment, being constantly confined to his room during the latter four. A few days ago he contracted the prevailing epidemic, a gripe, which combined with the asthma trouble, led to his death at the residence of Robt. Moore last Sunday evening. A wide circle of true friends mourn the death of this worthy citizen.
The Twentieth Infantry Passes Through Reno.
The Twentieth Regiment U. S. Infantry, formerly stationed at Ft.
Crook, Kansas, passed through Reno yesterday on its way to Manila.
Brigadier General Egbert is acting Colonel of the regiment; its muster is 1214 men and officers. Three long trains are conveying the soldiers to San Francisco, from where they will embark for the Philippines on the steamers Ohio and Senator.
Lieut. Charles Murphy, a Nevada boy and former University student, was with the regiment. He says the men were not at all hilarious on being obliged to leave Ft. Crook where they fared very well. Nearly all the soldiers are new men, over 700 having been mustered into the regiment during the past few months. Soldier life is not new to them, however, as a large number of the boys served in the volunteers at the bloody battle of El Caney and Santiago.
It Don't Go.
A prominent Spaniard attributes the superior vigor of the United States to the strength in mind and body of our women. He says: "Give American wives to 1,000,000 young men of Spain, and the nation in half a century will take its place among the greatest nations of Europe."
That's all right, Mr. Don, but it don't go just a little bit. If you think Uncle Sam is going to cross his thoroughbred with your mustang stock to furnish soldiers for Spain, you are as badly fooled as you was when you blew up the Maine. Nightengales don't mate with buzzards, nor American bellies with bull fighters—and don't you forget it.
An Interesting Case.
All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P.
Dann's show case on Virginia street, down by the iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display of all that is modern in photography.
There one may see large opal types small autotypes and lovely porcelains.
Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of this? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—silk handkerchiefs.
What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it?
A Narrow Escape.
Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled upon my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would band was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial took eight bottles in all. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
A Difference.
The report of the investigating committee in the case of Howard Wright will find that it was "highly reprehensible" in him to accept a "loan" from a candidate for the United States Senate. The report is silent, however, concerning the candidate who "loaned" the money. The report reminds us of the old maid's opinion of the Beecher-Tilton scandal. She thought Mrs. Tilton was guilty but that Mr.
Beecher was entirely innocent of any wrong doing.
